For Sue, With All My Love

She sailed the seas, a heart so free, With laughter shared and skies to see. Through sunlit decks and starry nights, She danced with joy, in peaceful flights.

Her heart was home to those she loved, Two boys, three grandkids—gifts from above.

A daughter-in-law with kindness true, Part of her heart, her chosen crew.

Lawn bowls on a green so wide,
Her spirit glowed, with love as guide.
And by her side through every tide,
Her loving husband, life's joy and pride.

Now Sue is cruising on a different shore, But in our hearts, she'll live evermore. Her laughter, like the wind's sweet song, Will guide us forward, forever strong.

Your Loving Husband, Lance
